

Things To Do Before Moving

6 Weeks Before Your Moving Date

- Apply for free online moving quotes, get at list 4.
- Based on quotes set your moving budget.
- Let your landlord know your are moving.

5 Weeks Before Your Moving Date

- Start collecting free moving boxes or order online.
- Start getting rid of things you no longer need, donate them or make a yard sale
- Stop purchasing products that are intended for long-term use

4 Weeks Before Your Moving Date

- Start learning where the important institutions are near your new home area (School, Banks, City Hall).
- Visit your local post office branch, file a change address form.
- If you plan to fly to your new place, book airline tickets with options for change.

3 Weeks Before Your Moving Date

- Start packing, begin with out of season items.
- Make a follow up call with your mover, verified your move date isn't change.
- Fix all damages in the apartment that are under your responsibility, get back your deposit in full.

2 Weeks Before Your Moving Date

- If you are driving to your new home, make sure your vehicle is fit for travel, visit your mechanic.
- Keep packing usable things as well and don't forget to label the boxes.
- Start by saying goodbye to your neighbors and returning equipment you may have borrowed from them.

1 Week Till Your Move Date

- Call all utilities companies and close your accounts such as Internet, Cable, Water, Electric Company.
- Call again your mover make sure nothing change.
- Get some cash handy and fill your car with gas.

Move Day

- Wake up early and have a good breakfast.
- Welcome your movers with drink and snack, don't sign any blank contract.
- Supervise movers work, make sure they treat your belongings with respect.